Major Davis
Sir

I am anxious to procure authority to run a company of mounted men, to serve for two years, or during the war if not sooner discharged, for any less term the Government may require with your plan, being very desirous to be recommended to June 28, 1915.

Respectfully returned to the Commissioner of Pensions, State of Texas, Austin.

No record has been found in this office of an organization known as Captain Robinson Gideon's Battalion, Ford's Command, Confederate States Army.

The Union prisoner of war records show, however, that one J. L. Freeman, private, Company A, Giddings's Battalion Texas Cavalry, C.S.A., was surrendered at New Orleans, La., May 26, 1865. There are no rolls on file for the battalion mentioned, nor has anything additional relative to Freeman been found.

of Butler Cook & Dard of C. & Buff. Regt. is sent. In Feb, last while in company of this post I met with these parties on the Mexican side of the River they explained to me their situation and desired to return I wrote Col Ford Corridy at San Antonio giving him the facts in the case and induced the men to come on. Col Ford approved my course and forwarded my letter to Hd Is. and I put the men on duty awaiting an answer which came Col G. H. Latham arrived at this post with authority from the Maj Genl Corridy desiring to give a full and free pardon to all men who had fled from Texas & taken refuge in Mexico and each of these men received their pardon papers, some time after my letter to Col Ford in regard to these was returned to me with enclosures as per enclosed which arrived just as I was leaving for Col Ford. He is again my representing the facts he told me that the matter was settled as the men could not be arrested and that they could join my old Co with which they are now on duty with Col Ford and I must add that no letter stating an order came. I would be pleased to be advised whether I can enter them on my Rolls as belonging to my Co or what is to be their status. There are no others with my Co and that I am aware of from Col Buffs Regt. I sent in the last article a man by the name of Nicola who is now with Cape Christmas battery. pardon papers have been given to several men deserters from other Regts some are in my Co & others have gone back to their Regts.

The proposition I made through Col Ford to raise and equip a Battalion of Light Artillery was based on the supposition that my mail lines would be broken up which is now the case. I have been able to secure hundred head horses and a large lot of stage Wagon.

I propose to furnish the horse and Wagon of suitable to be appeared and I attach valuation therefor. I also have quite a lot of arms Sharps Rifles, Colts Pistols & hope to get from Mexico a lot of cartridges. I have already the names of quite a number of stage drivers who will enter the service with me. Besides Col Ford has promised me that in case my proposition was accepted and it met with your approval he could assign cars except to this service. I was informed by Handwritten text, likely a letter or document, written in cursive script. The text is mostly illegible due to extreme blurring. It appears to be a formal communication, possibly a letter of introduction or a business document, given the structure and the use of capital letters at the beginning of lines. The text is arranged in several paragraphs, with some lines indented. The overall appearance is that of an old, handwritten manuscript or document.

Figure 1. The proposed model for the development of the self-regulation of learning skills. The model illustrates the relationship between various factors influencing the development of self-regulation of learning skills. The factors are organized into three main categories: Personal Factors, Environmental Factors, and Learning Outcomes. Personal Factors include Self-efficacy, Metacognitive Skills, and Learning Styles. Environmental Factors include Social Support, Teacher's Role, and Learning Environment. Learning Outcomes include Academic Achievement, Self-regulation of Learning Skills, and Learning Motivation. The model shows how these factors interact to influence the development of self-regulation of learning skills.

There are no rolls on file in this office of Muir's Regiment Texas Cavalry, C. S. A. (also known as the 4th - Showalter's - Regiment Arizona Brigade, U.S.A.), and no record has been found of the service, capture or parole of a man named L. S. Robinson as a member of that regiment.

A return of regiment mentioned for September, 1864, shows that L. S. Robinson, private, Company G, was transferred from Captain Carrington's Company.

The Union records of prisoners of war show that L. S. Robinson, private, Captain W. H. D. Carrington's Company, Giddings' Battalion Texas Cavalry, C. S. A., was surrendered May 26, 1865, at New Orleans, Louisiana, and paroled, date not stated. There are no rolls of said battalion on file in this office, and no further record has been found bearing on the subject of inquiry.
